

After Long Suffering

Women Are Constantly Being Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"Worth mountains of gold," says one woman. Another says, "I would not give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for all the other medicines for women in the world." Still another writes, "I should like to have the merits of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound thrown on the sky with a searchlight so that all suffering women could read and be convinced that there is a remedy for their ills."

We could fill a newspaper ten times the size of this with such quotations taken from the letters we have received from grateful women whose health has been restored and suffering banished by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Why has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound accomplished such a universal success? Why has it lived and thrived and kept on doing its glorious work among the sick women of the world for more than 30 years?

Simply and surely because of its sterling worth. The reason no other medicine has ever approached its success is plainly and simply because there is no other medicine so good for women's ills.

Here are two letters that just came to the writer's desk—only two of thousands, but both tell a comforting story to every suffering woman who will read them—and be guided by them.

FROM MRS. D. H. BROWN.

Iola, Kansas.—"During the Change of Life I was sick for two years. Before I took your medicine I could not bear the weight of my clothes and was bloated very badly. I doctored with three doctors but they did me no good. They said nature must have its way. My sister advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I purchased a bottle. Before it was gone the bloating left me and I was not so sore. I continued taking it until I had taken 12 bottles. Now I am stronger than I have been for years and can do all my work, even the washing. Your medicine is worth its weight in gold. I cannot praise it enough. If more women would take your medicine there would be more healthy women. You may use this letter for the good of others."—Mrs. D. H. Brown, 809 North Walnut Street, Iola, Kan.

MRS. WILLIAMS SAYS:

Elkhart, Ind.—"I suffered for 14 years from organic inflammation, female weakness, pain and irregularities. The pains in my sides were increased by walking or standing on my feet and I had such a fearful bearing down feeling, was depressed in spirits and became thin and pale with dull, heavy eyes. I had six doctors from whom I received only temporary relief. I decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial and also the Sensitive Wash. I have now used the remedies for four months and cannot express my thanks for what they have done for me."—Mrs. SADIE WILLIAMS, 455 James Street, Elkhart, Indiana.

Stubborn Case

"I was under the treatment of two doctors," writes Mrs. R. L. Phillips, of Indian Valley, Va., "and they pronounced my case a very stubborn one, of womanly weakness. I was not able to sit up, when I commenced to take Cardui.

I used it about one week, before I saw much change. Now, the severe pain, that had been in my side for years, has gone, and I don't suffer at all. I am feeling better than in a long time, and cannot speak too highly of Cardui."

F. SCHULTE'S AMBITIOUS TO ECLIPSE H. ZIMMERMAN; RABBIT'S FOOT AIDS PLAN

Frank Schulte.

Frank Schulte, robber of base hits and purloiner of bases, is proving a regular demon at the spring training of the Chicago Cubs at Tampa, Florida. Schulte declares that he is out to beat Heinie Zimmerman, the batting champion of the National league this year. He has made a good start.

As a part of his plan for carrying off the batting honors, Schulte wears in his right third pocket the foot of a rabbit, shot by Frank himself in the light of the crescent moon. The unfortunate rabbit was bagged on Frank's Georgia plantation just a few days ago.

the progress of the strike the coal companies employed a large number of men, commonly called "Baldwin Guards", who were armed with rifles of various kinds, including a number of machine guns; that while the strike was in progress, the mine operators, by their guards, evicted a number of miners from the houses occupied by them, claiming the right to do so under their contracts and that in some of these cases the evictions were forcible; that many reports, calculated to bring on conflicts were circulated from time to time; excitement ran high and charges and counter charges of acts of violence were made by the mine guards and the strikers against each other.

Second: That the striking miners armed themselves with high power rifles of various kind and description, but mainly Swiss and Italian Mausers; that they established camps at various points within the zone and acts of violence as a result of the conflict between the striking miners on the one side and the mine guards on the other were numerous; that these camps of the Union miners have been established on private property at various places and principally at Eskdale and Holley Grove and that the union miners living in these camps have drawn from the United Mine Workers of America, certain stipulated amounts, either in "grub" or money, each week; that the mine owners have claimed that the striking miners in these camps, have from time to time shot into coal plants and the miners living in these camps, have contended that the guards had fired into their camps; that a number of persons have been killed and several battles have been fought.

Third: That on the first day of September, 1912, martial law was declared; troops sent into the district now covered by the proclamation of martial law of February 10, 1913, and all the arms of every kind and description that could be gotten hold of were taken in charge by the military authorities, including machine guns and rifles of the mine guards and the Swiss and Italian Mausers in the hands of the strikers and that on the third day of September, 1912, every mine guard employed in the district was deported therefrom.

Fourth: That the martial law proclamation was withdrawn about the middle of October, 1912; that the strike continued and there were other cases of disorder and violence; that martial law was again declared on November 15, 1912, and continued until the middle of December, 1912, at which time the troops were withdrawn, and between December 15, 1912, and February 10, 1913, disorders of various kinds occurred in what is called the martial law zone; that the feeling between the non-union employees of the coal companies and mine guards employed by them, on the one side, and the union miners and their sympathizers, on the other, was intense and that there were many disquieting rumors afloat at all times and that there were many acts of violence, including shootings; that the coal companies had employed armed guards and in some instances had machine guns on their property and the striking miners on the other hand, had re-armed themselves with high power rifles and that there were several shootings and conflicts that led up to the declaration of martial law of February 10, 1913, and prior to the shooting which is now being tried by this military commission."

Anty Drudge's Idea of Clubs

Organizer of Woman's Club—"Anty, we want you to join our club for the study of sociology, economics and the general uplifting of womankind."

Anty Drudge—"All right, my dear. We'll begin by telling all women about the new way of washing clothes with Fels-Naptha Soap in cool or lukewarm water. It does away with boiling and hard-rubbing, saves work, time, worry and money, and does more to help women than all the sociology and economics in creation."

When women first began to wash clothes, they soaked them in a stream and beat them with a paddle. A hard job it was then to get rid of dirt.

Then someone found that fat and lye made a substance which, mixed with hot water and rubbed hard, cleaned things pretty well. This was soap.

Finally, came Fels-Naptha Soap.

Fels-Naptha isn't simply good soap; it's different altogether from soap as you know it.

Fels-Naptha Soap marks as big an advance over soap in its usual meaning, as ordinary soap itself did over the paddle.

Ordinary soap calls for much hard-rubbing and plenty of boiling water to take away dirt. Some kinds of stains, grease and blood it simply won't remove.

But Fels-Naptha cleans without hard-rubbing and you don't use hot water at all. With Fels-Naptha Soap all you need is cool or lukewarm water.

Think how this cuts all the terror out of washday.
